Breakfast on Fairhill Cape Coast, Ghana

First the dishes are cleared, the tables wiped,
Then the sweeping begins,
Three double-bent backs moving slowly across the stones
Quiet voices
Soft sounds
Slow, steady movement

The palm-straw brooms swish and whisper,
Swish and whisper
Virtual extensions of the sweepers' arms
Efficient
Effective
And as Ghanaian as Akwaaba - "Welcome"

On the hilltop birds pause on telephone wires,
Black against the early morning haze,
Living notes on a Fante music staff,

In an instant the music vanishes,
But the song continues.

-Don Clerico
